Freemasons Supporting Surf Life Saving Central Coast

SLSCC Rookies gather on Terrigal Beach for the annual Raising of the Flags ceremony

The Surf Life Saving clubs on the Central Coast raise the flags for the 2023/2024 season.

With hot weather forecast, record numbers are expected to flock to Central Coast beaches this season. Surf Life Saving Central Coast (SLSCC) marked the beginning of the season with its annual Raising of the Flags at the Terrigal Surf Club on Saturday 23 September 2023.

The SLSCC clubs extend from The Lakes in the north to Umina Beach in the south.

Last season there were almost 8,500 active members, performing some 604 rescues and over 42,600 preventative actions.

Volunteer surf lifesavers are an integral part of Australian culture, and they are pleased to be back on the sand for another busy season.
